The voluntary sector is currently under greater pressure than ever before and the financial implications facing many organisations in the sector are challenging.

Erewash Voluntary Action is putting on two free seminars for Erewash groups designed to help organisations work through the issues that need considering if they are to maintain a healthy organisation.

For organisations run by volunteers there will be a seminar in the morning 10am – Noon

For any organisations with paid staff there will be a seminar in the afternoon 2pm - 4pm.

These sessions will be facilitated by Peter Stone Consulting.
